Principal Subject Headings

Bills and resolutions are indexed under the principal subject-matter headings listed below. In the body of the index, cross references to related subject-matter headings are provided at the beginning of principal subject-matter entries and from more specific subject terms to relevant principal headings. The names of States and the District of Columbia, to and from which cross references are not ordinarily given and which do not appear in the list below, are also included as principal terms. Legislation which appropriates funds or authorizes appropriations for agencies or programs will be found under the subject-matter heading "Public Finance and Budgets." Measures are subject indexed as introduced only and not according to revisions made during the legislative process; measures which have received action and appear in either the Action or Public Law section of the Digest are denoted by an asterisk.
